

Principal

Salary range: $82,000 - $90,000

The Lt. Joseph P. Kennedy Institute of Catholic Charities is seeking a Principal to join our Washington, DC-based Kennedy School.

This role is responsible for interpreting and implementing the District of Columbia Public Schools' (DCPS) policies and regulations as they relate to our non-public special education school, promoting a safe and structured school environment for students and staff, and observing classrooms and off-site inclusion programs. You will also provide leadership and training opportunities for staff; evaluate the progress of staff, students, and the program; and create and manage the educational budget.

Qualified candidates will have a minimum of a MA/MS degree; Masters in special education or educational administration strongly preferred. SLLA licensure required. Two or more years' educational administration experience preferred. Experience working with children with developmental disabilities preferred. We offer a great benefits package.
